

KODIAKS CLIP BRIERCREST IN HOME OPENER

The Lethbridge College Kodiaks women's basketball team gave the home crowd lots to cheer about as they dominated the Briercrest Clippers 76-65 in their home opener on October 20.

Feature photo: Haylee-Jo Heggie #7 dips away from Briercrest forward Moriah Williams #11 on the Val Matteotti hardwood.

Top Left: First year forward Amy Berryman (12) shoots and scores during Friday night's matchup

Centre: A battle of the 14's broke out between Hope Jordens (left) and Courtney Kwasney (right).

Top right: Player of the game, Madi Gladstone (9) lines up for a free-throw. In Gladstone's first game with the clippers she secured 16 points.

Bottom left: Lethbridge College Kodiaks head coach Deanna Dotts delivers a few motivational words to her team during a time-out late in the third quarter

Bottom Right: After an intense home opener Friday night, the Lethbridge College Kodiaks and the Briercrest Clippers embrace in a moment of prayer, displaying amazing sportsmanship.

